

11th September 2023

Dear Chiltern Families,

This afternoon we received an email threatening the safety of children and staff so we put our lockdown procedure into action and notified the Police. Your children followed the procedure really well, and staff did a great job in reassuring the children in their care.

Late in the afternoon Humberside Police let us know that they had looked into the matter and told us that the email threat was a hoax, and that there was no threat to children. We immediately dismissed children whose parents had arrived to collect them. Thank you for collecting your children so promptly and sensibly.

We would like to stress that children should come to school as usual tomorrow.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Jacqui Marshall (Head of School)
