Vol. 2 Issue 2

Mrs Marshall's Messages:

This week, we have been focusing on "Be Bright, Be Seen" in our assembly, to help our children stay safe while walking/riding to and from school in the dark. We encourage everyone to be extra cautious during these dull, dark mornings and evenings. We sell reflective PE bags with the school logo on at the school office for £5.00, these help the children to be seen.

We are also excited to announce a Junior Leadership Team competition where children can create a poster about safety when walking to school. We would love to see as many entries as possible with the caption Be Bright, Be Seen!

Thank you for your generous support during Children in Need; it truly makes a difference.

Just a reminder- Please, no loopy earrings, as they may get caught. Children can wear stud earrings.

This week's talking task:

Rule of Law

The ministerial code is a set of rules that exists to ensure ministers act in the best interests of the general public. Rules can guide us on how to uphold values such as honesty and integrity.

Protected Characteristics

UK Prime Minister Sir Keir Starmer is British; this is his nationality. As leader of the government, he must ensure that people of all nationalities living in the UK are treated fairly.

 Sex	 Sexual Orientation	 Age
 Disability	 Gender Reassignment	 Marriage and Civil Partnership
 Pregnancy and Maternity	 Race	 Religion or Belief

In the news this week

UK Prime Minister, Sir Keir Starmer, has faced questioning and criticism recently for accepting free gifts. The Prime Minister has said he would continue to accept such gifts, despite the negative comments, stating that he is not doing anything wrong. Sir Keir, an Arsenal football fan, has also come under pressure for receiving thousands of pounds worth of football tickets. Although he is already an Arsenal season ticket holder, Sir Keir explained that security concerns mean he can no longer watch games from his usual seat in the stands.

Things to talk about at home ...

- > Do you believe politicians should always be allowed to accept free gifts?
- > Can you make a list of the different times you give people gifts, and times you receive them?
- > Do you prefer to give or receive gifts? Ask your people at home what they think.
